WELCOME TO OUR 17TH ANNUAL ABBEYHILL COLONY OF ARTISTS 2022 EXHIBITION

What an extraordinary last couple of years we have had and we are incredibly grateful to each and every one of you for your support during this time. After the success of our "garden theme" party over the past two years, you will find that many artists are continuing to exhibit in their gardens, but a fair number of artists are also exhibiting in their own homes this year. It really will be a wonderful mix of both! You may find that some venues will ask that you pop on a mask, so please be prepared.

Our message to individuals is bee kind, have fun and enjoy this rather special, unique event. We are so happy that you continue to support us and join the Abbeyhill Colonies family for the weekend.

HOW TO USE YOUR BROCHURE

Our biggest Festival yet, we have 73 artists from a wide and exciting range of disciplines exhibiting in over 40 venues. The Hive at Holland House on Rossie Place is the ideal starting point with over 20 artists at our Art Mart, food available from The Safari Lounge, our own COA Beer from Campervan Brewery and fantastic music to whet your appetite!

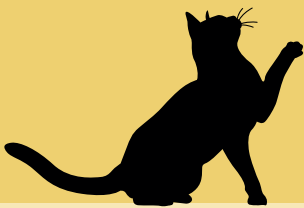

Use the map to navigate the Colony streets. Houses with green signage numbers outside indicate one of our venues and correspond with the exhibiting artist's entry in the brochure.

Use a pen and mark your favourites, scribble all over your brochure with notes, star ratings, must buys... the route to take and where to stop for a bite to eat or some liquid refreshments.

We really need your support to keep this COA Festival alive in these difficult times. Each year all participating artists, and most of the local businesses, donate wonderful prizes for our raffle. The prizes are exceptional! Visit the Raffle Table at the Hive and purchase a ticket! Tickets are £2 each or 3 for £5.
 No cash? No problem! We even have a card reader!
 Every ticket sold goes to keeping the Festival and Mural projects going.
THANK YOU!

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE ABBEYHILL COLONIES

The Abbeyhill Colonies date back to 1867 when a dispute over working hours was led by the Edinburgh Cooperative Building Company (ECBC), who took the beehive as their symbol, and sought to provide homes for workers, built by workers. Unusually for the period, women could invest and had the same rights as male investors.

Taking a decade to complete each terrace provided high quality accommodation and amenities, a lower and upper dwelling and external stairs allowing each dwelling a front door and garden - something that was typically beyond the pocket of lower-class families.

OUR STORY

The Colony of Artists Festival was born in 2005, pioneered by local resident and artist, Gill Smith, who was inspired by the Pittenweem Arts Festival and the co-operative history of the Edinburgh Colonies. From these humble beginnings in 2005 where only nine artists exhibited, we are now in our 17th year with 73 artists taking part in COA22.

This co-operative spirit has been maintained throughout the years, as after a year out in 2007, Bill Mazur and Kat Chisholm picked up the reins and have been leading the way since 2008 - with a very long list of wonderful people helping along the way! It really has taken a community to build this event and we look forward to many more years sharing our homes and gardens with you.

The streets are named and numbered according to the building, rather than the road between them, i.e. the lower colony flat of 22 Lady Menzies Place sits opposite the upper colony flat of 23 Regent Place. This made perfect sense at the time, as each terrace was completed before the building of the next, but causes much confusion for visitors today!

150 years after they were built, the Abbeyhill Colonies continue to have a strong sense of community and are home to many modern-day artists giving them a new sense of identity.

MONTROSE TERRACE HOARDINGS (2021) RIP

Sadly these are no longer with us, but we are looking forward to our collaboration with Vue Art again during COA22 to tackle the eyesore that the old TSB bank on London Road has become. Look out for live street artists transforming the newly erected hoardings into something beautiful over the weekend! Be sure to stop and say hello!

THANK YOU

Thank you to our funders: People Postcode Lottery, Edinburgh Community Grants Fund, CORRA Foundation, ScotMid Community Fund and the Arnold Clark Foundation. Big hugs and thanks to all the businesses who have supported us - those who advertise, donate and those who put their trust in us to create magic in our rather special corner of Edinburgh. It's you that have made living and working in Abbeyhill so fantastic so here's to you! The Murally People also want to thank our Creative Director, Kat Chisholm, Lotte Walters from Vue Art and Hetty Lancaster for all their continued help and support.

Lastly, who are the Murally People? Like another great street artist we all know, we remain anonymous! You can find out more though if you're very keen by visiting our website. We hope you've enjoyed our work to date. It's been a pleasure :)

SWIFT PROJECT WITH RSPB

We partnered with the RSPB Swift Cities Project and Edinburgh Swifts over the past two years to bring awareness to the plight of our urban wildlife. All around the Abbeyhill Colonies you will not only find our beautiful murals which we updated with swifts, but we also installed swift boxes to encourage our feathered friends to roost. This project aims to protect and enhance the local swift population through conservation and community engagement. We need to protect nature in our urban landscape and this is an example of a community taking action for nature on their doorstep.

It is a lot of hard work and a labour of love to put on the Colony of Artists Festival weekend.

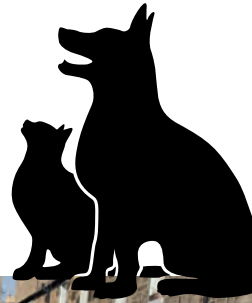

Firstly, we would like to thank our 2022 funders who include: The People's Postcode Lottery, ScotMid Community Fund and the Arnold Clark Foundation.

There are also many local businesses who go above and beyond to help, so thank you to Holland House Electrical who allow us to take over their car park for our Hive, The Safari Lounge, Abbeyhill Primary School, Cornelius Beer and Wine, Hillside Bowling Club and to all the businesses who advertise and those that allow us to decorate their windows and premises in the lead up to the Festival.

Our biggest thank you goes to the local Abbeyhill Colony residents who have supported us for 17 years and have allowed us to take over their streets for one weekend a year. You are all amazing!

Lastly, many thanks to the general public who have come along and supported us for all these years. Here's to many more!
